Alston-Pleasants Post-Graduate Scholar Graduates

May 29, 2012 –Trustees Debbie A. Daniel, Helen N. Parker and J. Gilbert Stallings congratulate Angela Denise Spruill on being awarded the degree of Master of Science in Nursing at her May 13, 2012 graduation from the University of North Carolina.

Ms. Spruill, a 2001 University of North Carolina graduate from Halifax County, is the third recipient of an Alston-Pleasants Post-Graduate Scholars Fund scholarship.

This Fund was established in 2008 to support the graduate and professional studies of recipients of the Alston-Pleasants Scholarships that Missouri Alston Pleasants established in 1958 for selected undergraduate University of North Carolina students from Franklin, Halifax and Warren Counties.

Ms. Spruill has been with the Bone Marrow Transplant program at UNC for several years where she trains new nurses, mentors students and manages the staff schedule. In 2007, she earned an Oncology Excellence Award for Nursing and later was named as one of the Great 100 Nurses in North Carolina.
