Alston-Pleasants Post-Graduate Scholars Fund Scholarships

June 20, 2011 –Trustees Debbie A. Daniel, Helen N. Parker and J. Gilbert Stallings congratulate Jennifer Lundholm on being awarded the degree of Master of Business Administration at her May 8, 2011 graduation from the University of North Carolina Kenan-Flagler Business School.

Ms. Lundholm, a 2005 University of North Carolina graduate from Franklin County, was one of the first recipients of an Alston-Pleasants Post-Graduate Scholars Fund scholarship.

This Fund was established in 2008 to support the graduate and professional studies of recipients of the Alston-Pleasants Scholarships that Missouri Alston Pleasants established in 1958 for selected undergraduate University of North Carolina students from Franklin, Halifax and Warren Counties.

Ms. Lundholm plans to pursue a career in Real Estate. This summer, she is working for her family business RDU Paving, Inc. She is also pursuing her North Carolina General Building Contractor License.
